

再来 九月 invitation

The people have spoken and the next draft will be on September 1st. The draft has been named Sairai, honoring the return of Mr. Henry as well as the return of Coresets as a concept in Magic. We will of course be drafting the latest M19 coreset. It is also the first draft in a long time that (hopefully) all of the 7 core participants will be able to attend. The draft will also take place in a new location (Henry and Emils new apartment in Bergshamra (Kungshamra 15A)) since we see this as a fun opportunity to show off our new place and have a good time. Dont worry it should be well equipped for drafting even though we might not have the luxury of double 8-seat tables for drafting and eating.

Suggested format:

4 pack draft as usual. Casual round robin (every player face each other one time) 1v1 tournament after drafting and deckbuilding is complete. Matches are played best of 2 where each player is given points equal to the number of victories in the match. Hence a match can finish as a draw (1-1) and then each player gets 1 point counting towards the tournament totals, it can also finish (2-0) then the victorious player will get 2 points. The reason for playing best of 2 is to cut down on time since we rarely have time to finish playing everyone and this should hopefully help addressing this issue. The winner of the tournament is decided by counting the sum of all players points. No prize except honor for the winner.

The concept of introducing the set limited archetypes (what can you draft in each color) seemed to be a success and I will try to find the same information again but shortening it by a substantial amount so that it will only cover one page at max for all archetypes.

All in this suggested format is of course up for discussion and if you do not like the format or the concept of presenting the archetypes, please say so either in mail or before we start the draft ☺

TLDR

When: September 1st (exact time to be announced but expect around 10-ish)

Where: Bergshamra (Emil and Henrys apt)

What: M19 coreset draft, 4 pack draft, 1v1 round robin

